The Stricken Rose From Griet.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mertal suffering; for how polgnant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its beauty and fragrance were downed forever. Nature always sparses the suffering; she is a verifable store-liquide of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a gern or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading drugging the following with the state in permanency of construction.
